

I do not condone the governmental regulation of broadband and VoIP nor the proposed wiretapping requirements. Enough of the American citizen's rights have been trampled and privacy violated.